Resolution III of the Insurance Committee held on 29th September 20.

- - - - - - - - - -

Adoption of Amendments of Rules 5 and 21.

The following draft revised Rules 5 and 21 of the Official Branch Rules be submitted to Government for sanction, the same being necessitated by the adoption of the procedure of issuing policies after, instead of before payment of the first premium.

RULE 5.

The age of the proposer shall be taken to be the age at his last birthday or next birthday, whichever may be the nearest to the date on which the first premium is paid If it be equidistant, it shall be taken to be the age at his last birthday.

RULE 21.

When a proposal for insurance has been accepted, the Secretary shall, without delay, give notice thereof to the proposer through his official superior and call upon the proposer to pay the first premium in cash into a Government Treasury within the date specified in the said notice and to send the treasury receipt therefor to the Insurance Office for issue of policy. On receipt of the said treasury receipt, a policy shall be prepared in the prescribed form signed by the Secretary and forwarded to the insured by registered post. The date of payment of the first premium shall be the date of the policy and shall be entered in the policy by the Secretary. If the proposal has been rejected or otherwise dealt with, the Secretary shall communicate the same to the proposer through his official superior.

~~If the first premium~~ is not paid as

If the first premium is not paid as above laid down, the Secretary shall call upon the proposer through his immediate official superior to explain the delay, and , if within three months from the last due date for payment of the said first premium, it should be proved to the satisfaction of the President and Secretary that the delay was due to causes other than the illness of the proposer, he (the Secretary) may order the payment of all the premiums due from the first due date. In cases of delay exceeding three months and in all other cases in which the reason for delay is not considered satisfactory, the policy shall be issued after the production of a medical certificate similar to the one on which the policy was originally issued. The fee for obtaining such a certificate shall be paid by the proposer, which shall be for an ordinary medical certificate of good health, 5 per cent of the monthly pay of the proposer subject to a minimum of one rupee and maximum of five rupees and for a detailed medical certificate, 10 per cent of such pay subject to a minimum of three rupees and a maximum of fifteen rupees.
